Article 9. USES PERMITTED WITH CONDITIONS

Division I: General Provisions

Section 9.010. Intent and interpretation

It is the intent of this Article to identify certain activities or structures, which, if the use or structure complies with specifically identified conditions, shall be treated as a permitted use. For the purposes of this Chapter, these uses shall be known as “Uses Permitted with Conditions.” The regulations that govern Uses Subject to Conditions are set forth in this Article.

Section 9.020. Identification and determination of uses subject to conditions

- A. Pre-Application conference. A pre-application conference is required if applicant intends to operate a use or develop a structure that is intended to be occupied by a use set forth in this Article. The purpose of the conference is to advise the applicant of any additional information required to determine whether the proposed use qualifies as a Use Permitted with Conditions. Within ten (10) days of the receipt of all information requested, the Director shall inform the applicant if the use as proposed by the applicant qualifies as a Use Subject to Conditions pursuant to this Article.
- B. It is anticipated that there may be instances in which applicant may not know at the time of the pre-application conference all of the uses to which a structures in a development will be put, therefore, applicant may seek a determination on whether a proposed use qualifies as a Use Permitted with Conditions from the Director at any time. This request shall be submitted in writing with such information, as the Director shall request. Within ten (10) days of receipt of all the requested information, the Director shall inform the applicant in writing of whether the proposed use qualifies as a Use Subject to Conditions.
- C. No person, however, shall have any right to operate a use identified in this Article as a Use Subject to Conditions unless all of the conditions specified in the section related to that use are currently and continuously complied with. It shall be a violation of Section 1.150 of this Chapter to operate any use delineated in this Article without complying with the applicable conditions.
