

LEE'S SUMMIT MISSOURI

2017-18 COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT (CDBG) ENTITLEMENT PROGRAM

The CDBG Entitlement Program under the Department of Housing and Urban Development

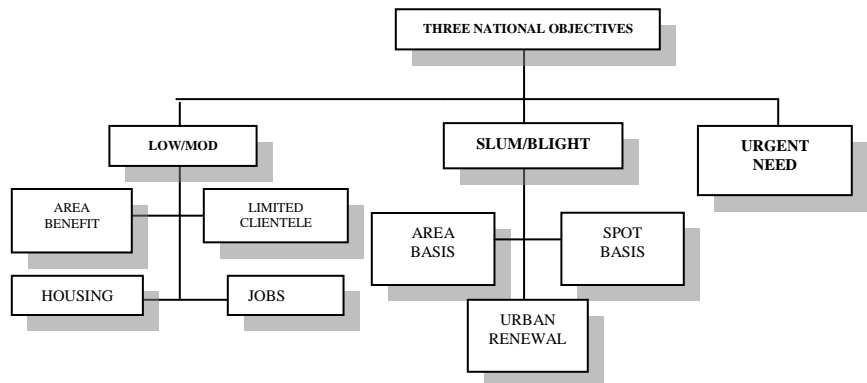

Entitlement status is a designation for local communities generally with a population over 50,000. The City of Lee's Summit was designated as an Entitlement Community under the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program by the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) in August of 1994. Because of this designation, the City receives a grant on an annual basis contingent upon Congress approval of the Federal budget.

The City's CDBG Entitlement allocation for 2016-17 was $369,299.00 and the 2017-18 grant amount is yet to be announced by HUD.

Programs/projects eligible for CDBG funding – general provisions

Under the federal CDBG program, grant funds must be used to meet one of the following national objectives:

- A. Benefit low-to-moderate income (LMI) persons;
B. Prevent/eliminate slums or blight; or,
C. Address a particularly urgent community need (disaster response).

CDBG Program Activities

There is a wide range of more than twenty types of activities eligible under the federal CDBG program. Grantees determine which of these types best meet the needs of their communities identified in their Consolidated Plans. However, in order to ensure that the primary objective of the CDBG Program is met – benefitting low- and moderate-income persons – grantees must ensure that all activities meet a national objective.

Described below are the types of eligible and ineligible CDBG activities under the federal guidelines. These activities are very loosely grouped into general categories.

Eligible CDBG Activities – general provisions

This section lists basic eligible activities under the federal CDBG program, but reduced to those that the City of Lee's Summit's program may support in the 2017-18 program year based on the community needs identified and the strategies recommended during the 2015-19 Consolidated Plan community engagement process. CDBG funds may be used for the following types of activities:

- Activities related to housing:
- First Time Homebuyer mortgage down payment assistance;
- Owner-occupied single family home exterior rehabilitation activities;
- Residential emergency repairs for LMI households;
- Public housing rehabilitation activities;
- Low-to-moderate income housing rehabilitation activities; and
- Transitional housing rehabilitation activities.

Ineligible CDBG Activities

In general, any activity that is not specifically authorized under the CDBG regulations and statute is ineligible. In addition, the regulations stipulate that the following activities may not be assisted with CDBG funds:

- Buildings for the general conduct of government (e.g., city hall);
- General government expenses; and
- Political activities.

The following activities may not be assisted with CDBG funds unless authorized as a special economic development activity or when carried out by a CBDO:

- Purchase of construction equipment or furnishings and personal property;
- Operating and maintenance expenses (of public facilities, improvements, and services), except for operating and maintenance expenses associated with public service activities, interim assistance, and office space for program staff employed in carrying out the CDBG Program.
- New housing construction, except under certain conditions or when carried out by a CBDO; and
- Income payments.

Income guidelines for low-to-moderate income households

Annually, HUD develops income guidelines based on the number of persons in the household. Benefits to LMI households can be direct or indirect. Direct benefits involve projects that directly serve LMI households such as the creation of jobs; indirect benefits involve projects that indirectly assist LMI households such as infrastructure improvements in an area where 51% or more of the residents qualify as LMI.
